

Annually organised Youth and Governance Conference will be held this year between 10-12 August in Accra, Ghana. The theme for this year's conference is "Committing to the Youth Agenda: Our Call to Action"

The objectives of this conference include mobilization of African youth, stimulate a dialogue on democratic governance issues among the youth of Africa to take a proactive role in Africa's social, political and economic development and constructing a platform for networking.

Youth from other continents will be admitted as observers and to share experiences.
