

Toybox has launched a new campaign called The Big Dream based around the dreams of street children and the Millennium Development Goals. The campaign aims to bring lasting and positive change to the lives of street children, street working children and those at risk of becoming so, through front line work, prevention and advocacy, being a facilitator and enabler, galvanising people and resources in the UK, Latin America and worldwide. Pressuring governments to recommit to the Millennium Development Goals is the core of the campaign

The United Nations MDG Summit took place between the 20th and the 22nd September in New York, during which the world leaders all renewed their commitment to meeting the Goals. Unfortunately, the outcome document does not reflect the urgency of the task ahead, and neither does it really put enough pressure on the wealthier nations to step up their contributions
